The Old Packinghouse Café follows the old tradition of passing the hat to help support local musicians.

In the spirit of the age-old street performer, our musicians appreciate any support you can offer.

So when the hat comes by and you are enjoying the music help them out.

In so doing, the Old Packinghouse can continue to keep the food & drink prices down for our most valued customer, you!

This is not your local fast food "restaurant" our fresh food may take a little longer, but it's well worth waiting for.
